

Male Student-Athlete of the Month: January 2016

David Marshall

David has been selected as the January CSASC Male Student-Athlete of the Month. A Grade 12 student at St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic School in Tottenham, Dave is an energetic leader on the Stingers Senior Boys Basketball team.

“Dave has a renewed commitment to unselfish play and a motor that does not stop,” said Pat Dooley, passionate teacher-coach at St. Thomas Aquinas. Dave’s leadership has helped the Stingers squad to a first place finish at the end of the regular season for teams competing at the AAA level. In the final round of playoffs, the team is set to face the winner of the St. Peter’s at St. Joan of Arc matchup.

At the point guard position, Marshall averaged close to twenty points per game this season. “He is a strong player at both ends of the floor and naturally encourages his teammates to be better athletes”, commented Dooley. Not only does Dave excel on the court, but he also enjoys performing on the football field and on the track.

Congratulations on your achievement Dave and best of luck in the remainder of the year!

Female Student-Athlete of the Month: January 2016

Saurin Lalonde

Saurin is the January CSASC Female Student-Athlete of the Month. A Grade 10 student at St. Theresa's Catholic High School in Midland, Saurin is an outstanding leader and an extremely hard worker on and off the playing surfaces.

"While maintaining a high average in school, she is dedicated to each sport that she participates in and is a positive role model for athletes of all ages", said teacher-coach Dan Pellarin. "Not only does she excel at individual sports and team sports, she can be counted on in key situations and is a team player."

Lalonde is a dominant force on the Thunder Girls Hockey team and was a key contributor when the team advanced to OFSAA in the 2014-15 school year. This year, the team will head into the playoffs at the top of the ranks and will host the winner of the quarterfinal matchup between St. Thomas Aquinas and St. Joseph's.

Congratulations on your achievements Saurin and all the best in your future endeavours!
